1. What cookies are

Cookies are small text files stored on your device. Similar technologies include local storage and device identifiers.

2. Default posture: no analytics and no advertising trackers

- No third-party analytics scripts by default.
- No advertising cookies.
- No behavioral profiling for marketing.

3. Strictly necessary security cookies (possible)

In limited cases, our infrastructure or security protections may set strictly necessary cookies to:

- Maintain session integrity and basic site functionality,
- Mitigate abuse (e.g., bot and fraud protection),
- Apply security controls.

If used, these cookies are for security and integrity - not for advertising or cross-site tracking.

4. Current cookie inventory

Cookie Name	Purpose	Duration	Category
None	No cookies in use as of the Effective date (security cookies may be set only if required for integrity).	N/A	Strictly Necessary (if applicable)

As of the Effective date of this Policy, we do not currently and intentionally deploy analytics or advertising cookies.

If security infrastructure places a strictly necessary cookie, it is used only for security and integrity purposes.

5. Managing cookies

You can control cookies through your browser settings. Blocking strictly necessary cookies may cause parts of the Site to not function.

6. Global Privacy Control (GPC) / opt-out preference signals

Where required by applicable law, we honor user-enabled opt-out preference signals such as Global Privacy Control (GPC).

7. Updates, contact, and change log

We may update this Policy as the Site evolves. We will update the “Last updated” date.
